“The presentation of Tolton at our parish was a deeply moving experience for me, personally, and for all the members of our parish. It was one of those transformative moments we all seek in our lives.”

- Fr. Frank Matera, St. Mary’s Church, Simsbury

“I was deeply touched by Father Tolton’s profound faith as he struggled against so much opposition and persevered, following God’s will faithfully.”

- Most Reverend Bishop Peter A. Rosazza

“Jim Coleman’s performance of Fr. Tolton was fantastic. It opened up the life of a saint I had not previously known, especially one so important for our history in America.”

- Fr. Nathan, LC

“Tolton is a dynamic and thought provoking production. Both humbling and inspiring, it brings to the stage a range of critical themes regarding the human spirit.”

- Dr. Thomas C. Pellegrino, President, Holy Cross High School

“A History and a Religion lesson for my students and they were entertained as well! I would certainly welcome another program like this at this high school.”

- Camille Figluizzi, Principal, Kolbe Cathedral High School

“If you get a chance to attend any theater production it must be Tolton. The lessons contain therein are as relevant today as in the 19th century. We much thank God for the gift of Fr. Tolton to the Catholic Church in the United States.”

- Dcn. Robert M. Pallotti, St. Timothy Middle School, West Hartford

“I thought this production was going to be dull, but it really caught my attention! I loved it!”

- student at St. Paul Catholic High School

“I learned that if you persevere you can accomplish what you want. The story was inspiring to me.”

- Senior, Kolbe Cathedral High School

“I think that it was time for a black priest because Fr. Tolton had to show America that all of us are human, that there is only one race, the human race.”

- student at St. Timothy Middle School, West Hartford

“I thought it was inspiring, yet sad, because racism and slavery still exist.”

- student at St. Timothy Middle School

“Tolton’s joy and love of his faith were amazing!” - student at St. Paul Catholic High School

“The Augustus Tolton show was amazing as well as eye opening. It captured me from the beginning to end as the story unfolded seamlessly and such an interesting life. The show is worth every minute.”

- Fr. Philip Phan, Kolbe Cathedral HS Chaplain
